

REASONABLE SUSPICION OBSERVED BEHAVIOR REPORT

Behavior that provides reasonable suspicion supporting a test for controlled substances or alcohol use must be observed and documented by a supervisor. If possible, the behavior should be observed and documented by two supervisors. The documentation of the employee's conduct shall be prepared by the observing supervisor(s) within 24 hours of the observed behavior or before the results of the tests are released, whichever is earlier. Distribute this report to appropriate authorities based on agency policy and procedures while maintaining employee confidentiality.

CAUSE FOR REASONABLE SUSPICION

NOTE: A manager or supervisor must complete this form. A combination of one or more observable signs and symptoms of drug or alcohol use must be observed to establish reasonable suspicion. Determination of reasonable suspicion must be based on specific, contemporaneous, articulable observations concerning the appearance, behavior, body odors or speech (ABBS) of the employee. The observations may include indications of the chronic and withdrawal effects of controlled substances. In making a determination of reasonable suspicion, additional factors may include, but are not limited to the following:

- Pattern of unsatisfactory job performance or work habits;
- Occurrence of a serious or potentially serious work-related accident that may have been caused by human error or flagrant violations of safety, security, or other operating procedures;
- Evidence of illegal substance use, possession, sale, or delivery while on duty and/or possession of drug paraphernalia;
- Information provided by either a reliable or credible source independently corroborated or having corroborative evidence from a supervisor;
