

CUMBERLAND COUNTY LIBRARY MEETING ROOM POLICY

When Library functions are not scheduled, the meeting rooms are available to non-profit community organizations and government agencies engaged in educational, cultural, intellectual, or charitable activities in Cumberland County. The Cumberland County Library provides meeting room spaces as a public service regardless of beliefs or affiliation of groups requesting their use. The Cumberland County Library does not advocate or endorse the viewpoints of meetings or meeting room users. There is no charge for use of the meeting room; no admission fee may be charged by groups using a room. No group will be denied access to the meeting room because of age, race, creed, political beliefs, or viewpoints. All meetings will be open to the public, should they wish to attend.

From time to time, the library may decide to present a program utilizing the resources for a non-profit company. Such programs will be considered library sponsored programs and a library staff member shall be present during the program.

The intent of these policies and procedures is to provide equitable access to as many groups as possible. Failure to comply with the policies and procedures may be cause for denial of further use by an organization. We require to have all requesting parties to sign this agreement and follow the rules during use.
